Explore Southeast Arizona’s Cochise County. Walk, hike, bike, or climb the landscape where legends like Chiricahua, Cochise, Geronimo, John Slaughter, and Wyatt Earp once stood. You’ll find endless exploration and plenty of ways to get in your 10,000 steps.

Settle into world-class birding hotspots that offer sightings of more than 400 bird species. Shop galleries and farmers markets. Uncover world-class caverns and authentic ghost towns. Fill up on bona fide international cuisine, fiery Mexican favorites, and hearty cowboy fare, all served from food trucks, diners, and white tablecloth restaurants. Sip award-winning wines or a cool microbrew.

The expanse of mountain and sky, from sunrise to sunset, makes flipping your phone from selfie to scenic simple. Explore a just-right climate, with short-sleeve temperatures, sunny days, and starry nights.
