

EVENT LINEUP:

CREATIVE YOUTH PRODUCTIONS PERFORMANCE

Thu., Jan. 27th and Fri., Jan. 28th, 6:30pm
@ The Palace of Art and Theater

Watch a Reader's Theater performance put on by Willcox's youth! Creative Youth Productions will be performing The Most Viewed Least Watched Talk Show in History By Kenneth R. Preuss.

produced by special arrangement with Pioneer Drama Service, Inc., Englewood, Colorado.

RETRO SMARTMAKER: TELEGRAPH KEY

FRI., JAN. 28th, 1pm
@ STUDIO 128

Go back in time with Paola Barraza to make your own telegraph key and send a message in Morse code! The telegraph key came in many shapes and sizes since it's introduction in the mid 19th century, and served as the very first way to send messages over long distances without having to carry them!

'HEDY! THE LIFE & INVENTIONS OF HEDY LAMARR'

Sat., Jan. 29th, 7pm
@ The Palace of Art and Theater

A special treat to our anniversary weekend is Heather Massie with her solo play, 'HEDY! The Life & Inventions of Hedy Lamarr'! Her performance celebrates Hollywood film siren Hedy Lamarr, inventor of the Frequency-Hopping wireless technology in your cell phone, WiFi, GPS, & Bluetooth!

COURTYARD RECEPTION AND BIRTHDAY PARTY

Sun., Jan. 30th, 1 - 2:30pm
@ our new courtyard area!

Celebrate the Willcox Historic Theater's 85th birthday with cake, refreshments, and a look at future plans for Willcox Theater and Arts in our new Center of Arts and Heritage courtyard! The reception will include a raffle for a variety of prizes for people of all ages!

Crack the Code

Sun., Jan. 30th, 2:30pm
@ The Palace of Art and theater

Watch a special showing of The Imitation Game, a film based on the story of Alan Turing and the race to crack the Enigma code during World War II. Stay tuned for subsequent guest speaker and cyber security expert, Mari Degrazia! All proceeds benefit the Willcox High School Science Club.